

BA 105: Financial Literacy

General overview of topics and management concerning everyday personal financial decisions. Topics include household budgeting, management of financial accounts, use of credit, home purchasing, insurance requirements, market securities, and basic financial planning emphasizing retirement needs. Note: This class is not suggested for students concurrently enrolled in ESL courses.

Hours: 3

Program: Business

Semester Offered:

Fall