

BA 432: Production and Operations Management

Analysis of fundamental concepts in production and operations management which include methodologies, techniques, and tools as applied in managerial decision making. It considers inventory/production, modeling and linear programming, project scheduling based on network analysis, and queuing theory.

Hours: 3

Prerequisites:

BA 212, AC 220, BA 302, MA 185.

Program: Business

Semester Offered:

Spring