

CN 502: Ethics and Professional Orientation (Foundation Course)

This course examines professional ethics and legal issues, including professional roles and responsibilities in various counseling settings and areas of professional specialization. The course emphasizes the application of the American Counseling Association's ethical standards to clinical situations.

Hours: 3

Program: Community Counseling

Semester Offered:

Spring