

CN 503: Relationship Dynamics (Foundation Course)

This course will focus on building therapeutic relationships as students learn the theory and skills necessary to forming and maintaining relationships in a clinical setting from the interview to the counseling session. Primary attention will be paid to attaining professional knowledge to foster effective interpersonal skills in multiple professional contexts.

Hours: 3

Program: Community Counseling

Semester Offered:

Fall