

CN 505: Appraisal of the Individual (Foundation Course)

The focus of this course is on the analysis of concepts, methods, and procedures utilized to provide a better understanding and evaluation of individuals. This will include the theory and practice of assessing problems through various interviewing techniques and psychological testing methodology.

Hours: 3

Program: Community Counseling

Semester Offered:

Spring