

CN 514: Children and Adolescent Therapy

This course investigates disorders of this age group and various approaches to treatment. It will entail interviewing techniques, methods of evaluation, and treatment for this age population including an introduction to specialized treatment modalities for children. Ethical standards and legal requirements will also be integrated.

Hours: 3

Program: Community Counseling

Semester Offered:

Fall