

CJ 285: Patrol Procedures and Accident Investigation

This course is designed to teach responsibilities, techniques, and methods of police patrol and accident investigation. Identification of police hazards, beat patrol and observation techniques of responding to crime and emergencies, crime prevention and community policy concepts will also be introduced. Procedures for proper crash investigation will be presented.

Hours: 3

Prerequisites:

C or better CJ 100.

Program: Criminal Justice

Semester Offered:

Spring odd