

CJ 305: Minorities and Criminal Justice

An examination of the roles of minorities as offenders, victims, and employees in the criminal justice system. An assessment of statistics, research, and the literature as it relates to minority crime.

Hours: 3

Prerequisites:

C or better CJ 100 or SC 100.

Program: Criminal Justice

Semester Offered:

Fall