

CJ 307: Women and Criminal Justice

A survey of the roles of women as offenders, victims, and employees in the criminal justice system. An evaluation of current patterns and practices of law enforcement, criminal courts, and corrections relative to women as offenders, victims, and employees.

Hours: 3

Prerequisites:

C or better CJ 100 or SC 100.

Program: Criminal Justice

Semester Offered:

Spring