

DN 102: Dance Appreciation

This course will explore the topic of dance with an emphasis on multicultural viewpoints. Students are expected to view, analyze, and appreciate various dance performances with attention to race, gender, class, and religious identities. The course will include readings, discussions, and participation in dance experiences. No dance experience required.

Hours: 3

Program: Dance

Semester Offered:

Spring,

Online - Summer