

DN 115: Conditioning for Dancers

This course is designed to give students alternative ways to condition the body through a whole-body approach. This course will explore principles of conditioning, alignment for dancers, releasing tension, psychological wellness, eating to dance well, dance injuries and improving strength, flexibility, and endurance.

Hours: 3

Program: Dance

Semester Offered:

Spring odd