

DN 301: History of Dance

An in-depth course covering the history of dance as a fundamental human cultural expression. The course explores the relationship of dance to religion, gender, politics, other art forms, and its place in world events and civilizations.

Hours: 3

Program: Dance

Semester Offered:

Spring odd