

EC 435: Development of Economic Thought

Historical study and critical evaluation of the development of economic thought from Plato and Aristotle up to, and including Keynes. Emphasis on Mercantilist, Physiocrat, Classical, Socialist, Neo-Classical, Keynesian.

Hours: 3

Prerequisites:

EC 206, EC 216.

Program: Economics

Semester Offered:

Fall odd