

EC 485: Senior Thesis in Economics

In depth research in an economic topic of the student's interest. The student will synthesize the separate elements of economic theory into a coherent presentation on a topic of interest or concern. The student will work with an advisor and faculty committee of no less than three members including the advisor.

Hours: 3

Prerequisites:

BA 302, advisor's and committee's permission, last senior term.

Program: Economics

Semester Offered:

Arranged