

ED 501: History of Educational Administration

The course will focus on fundamental organizational principles, models of administrative practices, problem-solving and communication skills in leadership, and local, state, and federal governance in education.

Hours: 3

Program: Education

Semester Offered:

Fall