

ED 504: Teacher Evaluation and Instructional Improvement

A course that will instruct the student in improvement based teacher evaluation methodology. The student will learn about a variety of methods that have been implemented to improve standardized test results in a school. Topics include the nature of supervision, selection of personnel, evaluation of personnel, retention of personnel, and organizational theory. This course requires 45 hours in internship activities.

Hours: 3

Program: Education

Semester Offered:

Spring