

ED 312: Techniques of Science Lab Experiences

A laboratory course in elementary physics. The course will include selected experiments in mechanics, heat, light, sound, electricity and magnetism, and modern physics. Course will also include techniques for implementing lab experiences in a secondary classroom.

Hours: 1

Program: Education

Semester Offered:

As needed