

ED 360: Language Development for the Exceptional Child

An overview of normal language development. Overview of language deviations and relationship to speech development. Survey of theories and strategies to remediate language/speech defects as they relate to the school-age child with disabilities.

Hours: 2

Prerequisites:

ED 260, ED 265.

Program: Education

Semester Offered:

Fall