

ED 369: Early Childhood Organization

This course provides content approaches, methods, and method materials appropriate for young children as presented in interdisciplinary or experience coursework. Approaches in organizing artifacts and demonstrating knowledge of resources and skills. Course materials will be organized in an electronic format. The website created will illustrate competencies achieved and demonstrate development of professional resources as well as document the growth achieved during the early childhood program.

Hours: 1

Program: Education

Semester Offered:

Spring