

ED 415: Student Teaching Seminar

This seminar provides discourse on student teaching expectations as well as giving student teachers the opportunity to exchange information with each other on proceedings and progress in student teacher growth. Legal and ethical issues associated with the teaching profession addressed including online and out of the classroom behaviors. Application and interview practices for teaching jobs discussed.

Hours: 1

Co-Requisites:

This class is taken concurrently with student teaching.

Program: Education

Semester Offered:

Fall,

Spring