

GS 110: Library Resources

Course will acquaint students with the different sources of information in the library. Students will learn the basic features of reference materials in order to prepare for work in their majors. Students will also learn to develop strategies to locate information on a given topic. The course is designed especially for freshmen and sophomore students.

Hours: 1

Program: General Studies

Semester Offered:

On cycle