

GS 150: Freshman Seminar

This course is designed to empower students to be active learners and to provide them with an intensive orientation to college life. Students will explore campus resources and activities. Students also will work individually and in collaborative learning groups on meaningful academic projects that encourage critical thinking and build essential study, computer and library skills. The course will also contain several activities to help students get to know one another and to better understand their roles as adults in today's society. Required of all new freshmen.

Hours: 1

Fees: Course fee $80.

Program: General Studies

Semester Offered:

Fall,

Spring