

MS 301: Platoon Operations

Concentrates on the principles and techniques of military operations and leadership through study, practice, and evaluation as students are presented with scenarios related to tactical operations. Focuses on development through self-evaluation and feedback.

Hours: 3

Prerequisites:

MS 202.

Program: Military Science

Semester Offered:

Fall