

PE 322: Safety and Health Education for the Elementary Child

A study of programs of school health and safety education as it relates to the elementary school, and the development of effective health and safety instruction. CPR is a component of this course.

Hours: 3

Prerequisites:

MoGEA passed and PE 220.

Program: Physical Education

Semester Offered:

Fall