

PY 250: Multi-Cultural Psychology

This course will introduce students to the theory and applications of multiculturalism. Students will acquire knowledge and awareness to aid in their ability to relate, connect, and work with individuals from diverse backgrounds. Topics will include race, ethnicity, nationality, age, gender, ability, sex, sexual orientation, religion, spirituality, socio-economic status, and other expressions of worldwide diversity of individuals.

Hours: 2

Program: Psychology

Semester Offered:

Spring,

Online - Fall