

TH 240: Improvisation Techniques

Students will be trained and exposed to different improvisational acting techniques including short and long form improvisation exercises. They are required to apply research material, performance styles, historical research, and current events into their work. Class may be repeated for a maximum of four hours at each level and may not be taken concurrently with TH 242/442.

Hours: 1

Fees: $25 fee.

Program: Theatre

Semester Offered:

Fall,

Spring